Notes About Men and Their Doings in the Two Great Fields of National Pastime.

The Fone Fed Press is overworking its editorial columns in behalf of telephone monopoly.

The large blocks of stock held by Fone Fed Publishers were obtained when the Phone Trust was young and poor and could afford to give away stock for the necessary publicity.

Now that Fone Trust stock pays eight per cent dividends the Fone Fed publishers want to make their shares still more valuable by abolishing Phone competition.

The Fone Fed press is now advising Aldermen to vote for Phone monopoly and consolidation.

Next Spring the Phone Fed Press will advise the public to turn down its aldermanic seris because they are the friends of corporations with itching palms and unquenchable appetites for the long green.

The tendency among office holders to ask for laws lengthening their terms of office is working up a strong feeling among the people for a recall law. When there is a recall law in operation the terms of the incumbents can be regulated to suit the and Federal street popular taste.

STARTED CAREER AS PITCHER

Roger Bresnahan Got His Start With Semi-Professional Team in Michigan-Sent Back Twice.

Roger P. Bresnahan, catcher for the Chicago Cubs and former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, was born in Tralee, Ireland, June 14, 1880. He started his baseball career as a pitcher in 1898, playing with a semiprofessional team at Manistee, Mich. During the next two years he was tried and sent back by both Washington and Chicago. It was not until he drifted to Baltimore in 1901 that Roger made good. In 1902 the New York Giants landed him for a catcher and outfielder. He was a star in the world's series of 1905, in which the Giants beat the Athletics. Bresnahan got a chance to manage the St. Louis Cardinals and persuaded McGraw to let him go. In his first year as a Cardinal, 1909, he made his team hustle, and it was said the St. Louis club made more money than for several years before. Roger did not get along with the owners, however, and last winter drew his release from St. Louis and signed with the Cubs.

The release of Jake Stahl as mansger of the Boston Red Sox, the pres-ent world's champions, was a big jolt to the baseball world. It had been rumored that trouble was brewing between Stahl and McAleer, but both had denied these reports.

That Stahl was ordered to step aside was due to his own action, and was not caused by any previous misunderstandings by the pair, it was learned from a trustworthy source.

Stahl voluntarily went to McAleer and asked him whether he was to manage the Boston team next year. "Not unless you are able to play first base," replied McAleer. Stahl then told the Boston president, that he was averse to continuing as manager unless he was to lead the team next season. "In that event you had better resign," McAleer said to Stahl, Manager Stahl said he wouldn't resign under any circumstances, and thereupon the head of the Red Sox deposed him as manager and appointed Catcher Bill Carrigan to take charge of the team. That other managerial heads in the American league will fail is not unlikely. Rumor has fastened on two in the persons of George Stovall and Joe Birmingham. The Ferguson incldent, when Stovall was suspended, brought the ax very near to Brother George, but back of that were reasons that were not made public at the time and have not been.

The three games taken from Detroit helped Stovall more than a little, for it was the position of the team and more than anything else with the owner. Ban Johnson has never been friendly to Stovall nor has George held the most cordial feelings of good will toward the president of the league. Stovall did not better his position by openly siding with the striking Tigers a year ago, and it was freely predicted at the time that he had forfeited his chances of managing the Browns, This did not prove to be the case, but he certainly did not endear himself to Big Ban.

Birmingham's trouble is that he has made the Naps too aggressive. In his efforts to put fight in the team he has overdone the thing, but now promises to work with his foot on the soft pedal so that all may still be well.

Thieving His Forte.

Hap Meyers has done much to lift the Boston team from last place in the National league, because of daring on the bases. Meyers is a very weak hitter, drawing only a .224 average, but is leading the league in base stealing. Were he to hit above .300 his chances to pilfer would be greater on account of getting on first oftener. Meyers stole 115 bases in the Northwestern circuit last year and is undoubtedly the fastest youngster to break under the big tent this year.

Hedges Is Optimistic.

Bob Hedges, owner of the St. Louis Americans, says the Tigers have no license to finish ahead of the Browns. "Stovall's men ought to be ashamed of themselves if they cannot climb above Detroit." he adds, "but I am going to leave the team in George's hands to see what he can do.'

High-Priced Twirler.

Walter Johnson, the great right hander of the Washington Americans. is going to be the highest priced twirler in baseball next season, according to the dope. His contract now calls for $7,000, but he has announced that with its expiration he will demand $10,000.

Amusement for Fans.

On one of the "white suit days" it was so hot that Umpires Hildebrand and O'Loughlin had to take off their coats. All of which disclosed a pair of sleeve garters on Hildebrand and suspenders on O'Loughlin, greatly to the amusement of the crowd.
